Isaiah I Saw the Lord

In a time of crisis, Isaiah goes to worship

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of his robe filled the temple. — Isaiah 6:1 NIV

In worship, Isaiah has a vision of perfection

I saw the Lord. He was seated on his throne. His long robe filled the temple. He was highly honored. Above him were seraphs. Each of them had six wings. With two wings they covered their faces. With two wings they covered their feet. And with two wings they were flying. They were calling out to one another. They were saying, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord who rules over all. The whole earth is full of his glory." The sound of their voices caused the stone doorframe to shake. The temple was filled with smoke.

— Isaiah 6:1–4, NIV

In worship, Isaiah has a vision of imperfection

Then I said, "Woe is me! For I am ruined, Because I am a man of unclean lips, And I live among a people of unclean lips; For my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts."

— Isaiah 6:5, AMP

In worship, Isaiah finds his mission

Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. With it he touched my mouth and said, "See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!"

— Isaiah 6:6–8, NIV

God turns the woe into a go

Memory verse: Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!" — Isaiah 6:8, NIV
