

CATHEDRAL AT THE MOVIES

Part
2

Overcomer

This past weekend Pastor Ken continued the four-week series entitled, Cathedral at the Movies. We are looking at themes of a few of this summer's movies and what the Bible has to say about them. Over these weeks, we invite you to journey with someone at work, your family, or find a place to do it alone or with a friend. Let's grow and do life together during this series.

What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.” No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons,^[9] neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:31-39

1. Are you facing a giant in your life? It could be in your finance, your career, your health, your marriage, or some other area of your life. Take heart, God is for you and victory can be yours.
2. God wants to provide you with everything that you need. What do you need Him to do for you?
3. The devil always has a nice long list of all your failures and sins. But they were paid for on the cross. Therefore, you can be an overcomer today. What can you thank God for today?
4. God loves you not because of what you do but because of who He is and because of who you are. Will you let His love take hold of you today? Rest in the assurance of His love today.
5. Do you need a fresh start and /or to overcome something at this time in your life?

Close by praying for each other.
