I have my Nikes on—look at who is for me

What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? — Romans 8:31, NKJV

I have my Nikes on—look at how he provides for me

He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? — Romans 8:32, NIV

I have my Nikes on—look at how he justifies me

Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. 34 Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. — Romans 8:33–34, NIV

I have my Nikes on—look at how he loves me

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. — Romans 8:38–39, NIV

Memory verse: In all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

— Romans 8:37, NIV
