

“Legacy Language”

Part 2

Abundant Living

This past weekend Dr. Wayne continued to celebrate the history of our church with our series, Legacy Language. Did you know that our church family has been here for 54 years? That’s 2,808 weekends of sermons preached! In all of the words that have been said in all of those sermons, there have been a few key phrases that have shaped who we are as a church family- our legacy language. Over these weeks, we invite you to journey with someone at work, your family, or find a place to do it alone or with a friend. Let’s explore some of these phrases during this series.

1. Pastor Foreman’s television program was called Abundant Living because his heart for us was to live an abundant life. Would you like to live abundantly? Let’s look at how to do that.
2. God is a God of abundance and He wants us to live an overflowing life (read Ephesians 3:20; Psalm 23:5; 2 Corinthians 9:8). One of the ways to live the Abundant Life is to overflow with hope (see Romans 15:13 and Hebrews 6:19-20).
3. A second way to live the abundant life is to overflow with love (see 1 Thess. 3:12 and 1 John 4:7).
4. Third and fourth is to overflow with favor (Philippians 4:23) and with joy (Psalm 16:11).
5. Just like the children of Israel we have a choice (read Deuteronomy 30:19). To choose blessing, start by connecting with Christ (read John 7:37-38), then by growing in Christ (Philippians 1:9). Finally, we position ourselves for overflow through serving like Christ (Matthew 6:38). Make a decision to serve God during this holiday season and get involved.
