COURAGEOUS Daniel 2

There is a king who thinks it is all about me

I will have you cut into pieces and your houses turned into piles of rubble.

— Daniel 2:5, NIV

There are advisors who think it is all up to me

They answered the king, "There is no one on earth who can do what you are asking! No king has ever asked for anything like that... What you are asking is much too hard. No one can tell you what you dreamed except the gods. And they don't live among human beings." — Daniel 2:10-11, NIRV

There is the commander who thinks it is all on me

I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who can tell the king what his dream means. — Daniel 2:25, NIV

Memory Verse: In whatever you do, don't let selfishness or pride be your guide. Be humble, and honor others more than yourselves. Don't be interested only in your own life, but care about the lives of others too.

— Philippians 2:3-5, ERV
