Handwriting on the Wall

This past weekend Pastor Ken continued the series entitled, Courageous. We are looking at the life of Daniel and his example of courage. Over these weeks, we invite you to journey with someone at work, your family, or find a place to do it alone or with a friend. Let's explore together how to be courageous during this series.

Suddenly the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall, near the lampstand in the royal palace. The king watched the hand as it wrote. Daniel 5:5

1. There is great comfort, assurance, and courage that comes from knowing that God will make things right. When you see an unjust situation or bad guys seem to be winning or evil seems to be victorious, remember God will not be mocked and evil will not go unchecked. The day is coming when God will make things right (read Genesis 18:25).
2. Read Daniel chapter 5.
3. You can learn from the past or you can repeat it. The king didn't learn from the mistake of his grandfather and was also full of pride. And now his end is near. We can learn from the mistakes of others so we don't repeat the same mistakes (read Job 8:8). Share about something that you learned from others and therefore didn't repeat it. Also share a story of how you repeated something that someone else did instead of learning from their mistake.
4. It should be our goal to have a good name (read Proverbs 22:1). Daniel had a good name and they knew that he could help them solve the problem. Do you have a good name?
5. Do you have a situation that is tied up in knots and you need God to help you untie it?
