Heaven on Earth

This week Pastor Ken continued the series called Living on a Prayer. We are looking together at a prayer that we can live our life by. It is the pattern that Jesus gave us known as The Lord's Prayer. So gather some friends or family or go through these points alone each week and let's grow together.

This, then, is how you should pray: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one."
Matthew 6:9-13

1. The word heaven doesn't have to be where we end up when we die. You can have a taste of it right here on earth. We are encouraged to pray for more heaven on earth. Read Psalm 145:3; 1 Timothy 1:17, and Revelation 19:17.
2. It starts with our inner world (read Luke 17:21 NKJV) as we surrender our will to God (read Romans 6:13-14). Maybe there is a part of your world that you need to surrender. Ask God for the strength to do this.
3. Next, we can pray for our broken world (read Matthew 11:11-15 NLT). The best way to fight is on your knees (read 1 John 3:8). If we take the fight to the enemy, our broken world could be better. You could be the answer to prayer as you work to make the world a better place.
4. There is a day that is coming where there will be no more sorrow or pain, no more tears or death. This world will end and heaven and earth will be one (read Revelation 11:15 NIV).
5. This week, we challenge you to pray for your family and friends, your neighbors and classmates or teammates. Pray that they would become a part of God's Kingdom.
