Forgiveness

This week Pastor Ken continued the series called Living on a Prayer. We are looking together at a prayer that we can live our life by. It is the pattern that Jesus gave us known as The Lord's Prayer. So gather some friends or family or go through these points alone each week and let's grow together.

This, then, is how you should pray: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one."
Matthew 6:9-13

1. Pastor Ken talked this weekend about how we live in a broken world where hurting people hurt other people and often the people closest to us cause us the most pain.
2. Begin by reading Matthew 18:21-35.
3. Unforgiveness robs us of peace, hinders our ability to hear God's voice and withholds His protection. God expects forgiven people to forgive and there is no limit to how many times you forgive. The blood of Jesus cleanses all sin, including the ones committed against me.

4. Forgiveness is the cornerstone of the Gospel. It is a decision that heals wounds and brings freedom to your soul. Pastor Ken spoke of how we can be in the prison of bitterness and resentment and how having mercy and grace can set you free. If you are living under the shadow of hurt, you can change that and live under the shadow of the cross and strike back with love. Is there someone that you need to forgive today?
5. Spend some time and verbally forgive people in your life right now and let the bitterness go.
