Overcoming Loneliness in a Social Distancing World

The practice of humility

In whatever you do, don't let selfishness or pride be your guide. Be humble, and honor others more than yourselves. Don't be interested only in your own life, but care about the lives of others too. — Philipians 2:3-4, ERV

The practice of kindness

Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. — Ephesians 4:32, ESV

The practice of patience

Patiently put up with each other and love each other. — Ephesians 4:2, CEV

The practice of forgiveness

Bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. — Colossians 3:13, ESV
