Becoming a Dream Releaser

This week Pastor Ken continued the series Dream Again. We are looking together at the Biblical principle of the birth, death, and resurrection of a dream and how to dream again after a very difficult year. So, gather with your family or go through these points alone each week and let's grow together.

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us. Ephesians 3:20

1. When you help someone else to follow their dream it makes you a dream releaser. And when you become a dream releaser you not only pay it back; you pay it forward (read Luke 6:38 and Matthew 7:12). Who helped you to follow your dream? Have you ever helped someone else to do the same? If not, you can start today.
2. When you become a dream releaser, this is the pathway to true greatness (read Mark 9:35 and Matthew 23:11). Zig Ziglar likes to say, "You will get all you want in life if you help enough other people get what they want."
3. Questions to help you become a dream releaser:
  - What can I do to inspire others to dream?
  - What can I do to become a champion of the dreams of others?
  - What can I do to open doors for others?
  - What can I do to remove roadblocks for others?
  - How can I use my power and position to serve others on the way to their dream?
4. Here at the Cathedral of Faith we get excited about making someone else successful. Ask God to show you someone that you can come along side of to encourage them to pursue their dream.
