Dream Again

This week Pastor John concluded the series Dream Again. We are looked together at the Biblical principle of the birth, death, and resurrection of a dream and how to dream again after a very difficult year. We hope that you were able to gather with your family or went through these points alone and had a positive experience.

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us. Ephesians 3:20

1. Quieting the influence of fear and doubt will help you to hear God's voice like we see Caleb did before the Hebrew people entered the Promise land (read Numbers 13:30).
2. Sometimes you must fight to see your dreams come true and at times waiting is part of the process. When you wait on the Lord and keep on dreaming you are saying "I trust You Lord" (read Isaiah 43:31). Are you willing to fight for your dream?
3. The time has come to dream again (read Joshua 14:6-13). Caleb declared his dream to Joshua with his famous words, "give me this mountain." It's time to believe again – in God, yourself, and your dreams. God is the God of endless opportunities. Don't be afraid if the task looks hard because "greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world (1 John 4:4).
4. Where are you in relationship with your dreams? Confess your dream, take the initiative, and begin to take some action toward seeing your dreams fulfilled. Talk to the leaders in your life and declare God's promises. It's never too late to dream again.
